Wanted! 100 girls with normal courage sufficient to enable them to set a fashion of their own, and wear common sense shoes, with low or moderation heels and dresses long enough to cover all of their person that should not go exposed. I went to the Academy of music and saw the girls on the stage dressed in stockingnet or tights as some term these costumes, and one of our party spoke of what we saw as a "leg show", but if that was an attraction (to see women's legs) one only had to go out on one of the principal streets in the city to see so many of them as would satiate the most vulgar desire along this line. For the praise of human nature be it said that all ladies, nay, all women, do not wear these ultra fashionable costumes and some of those who do, look like they are ashamed of showing their nakedness, and indeed some of them are not so prettily formed as to be anxious to show their busts nor yet their lower extremities. I was agreebly impressed to notice that many of the lady employees about the State Capital wear low heel shoes and skirts of decent lengths. I heard a lady expatiating on the want of galantry among married men, she seemed to think that married men do not show that attention to their wives that they did before their marriage and that this was very disright and unpretty. She seemed to think that a married couple should be courting each other after marriage just as they did before they were married.

Very few cases of importance were heard in the Circuit Court which was in session here last week. The Grand Jury brought in an indictment against Buck Shoemaker who was charged with going off with an unmarried girl for immoral purposes Shoemaker's wife was at home desperately ill while he was in attendance at court here and it was stated in a local paper that she had pneumonia.

One man reports that his tobacco seed have come up while numbers of people are just sowing tobacco seed. Some tobacco spoiled on the dealers hands while the weather was so warm and some got hot in the hands of producers. What a mint of money someone is coining when they buy tobacco at the low prices that now prevail, and sell cigars at from six to ten cents each and plug tobacco at prices never before known to be as high.

I have heard Mr. A. C. Garnett's name mentioned in connection with an appointment as postmaster at this place, but I have never heard Mr. Garnett mention the matter one way or another.

Judge Clarance Campbell and Lieutenant Aubrey E. Strode, of Amherst Co, were here attending court last week.

Commonwealth Attorney, E. W. Hubard was here after an absence from the county of several months.

Our hearts go out in loving sympathy to Mr. and Mrs Thomas G. Guthtie in the loss of their son who was one of the four fireman killed while fighting the big fire in the Jurgens furniture store in Richmond last week. A commendable deed that of the City Council in Richmond in allowing the pay of the deceased fireman to continue just as if they were living until further notice.

Weather conditions change much faster than weekly papers appear, but as I write it is warmer than we usuall see it in March

In North Carolina they are planting corn and think I will plant some in the garden this week which is likely to be bitten by frost in April.

Miss Julia T. Swoope has returned from a pleasant trip to Richmond.

Dr. J. B. Nowlin is at Tucker's Hospital or Sanatorium in Richmond for treatment.

Dr. T. H. Lacy filled his regular appointment at Emanuel church Sunday. Rev. Sadler preached a very impressive sermon at the Baptist church here last Sunday. One thing he said was that the church of God was a dangerous place for an ungenerated or unconverted man to be.

On last Friday, March 18th, Mr. Tom Harveys' 85 birthday was celebrated at his home.

Young Tommie Harvey also came with his bride the same day.

All of Mr. Harvey's children were there and some of his grandchildren and quite a number of his friends were present. It was an ideal day for the celebration of such an occasion and we enjoyed it so much. The dinner must surely be mentioned as it was grand and enjoyed so much by everyone present. Mr. Harvey gets around remarkably well for a man of his age and we hope to spend other birthdays with him.

C. T. Moses is moving this week into the Mrs. Julian Abbitt property.

Appomattox and Pamplin Tobacco Markets

Reports of better prices for tobacco on Pamplin market for some weeks, caused the sale of more tobacco on that market than here in February, although a request for the average price paid has been ignored. Interested business men inquired of the warehouse men and buyers here for an explanation. The buyers say they are paying all their orders will allow them to pay for the tobacco and the warehouse men have no explanation to offer, unless the price on a load now and then is boosted and paid for by the warehouse people to advertise and induce the growers to bring in the tobacco from the seller's neighborhood. The warehouse men here point to the fact that Pamplin's charge of 60 for weighing makes it more expensive to sell on that market than here.

To verify these rumors last week Mr. A divided a barn of tobacco and sent one load to Pamplin and one to Appomattox, exactly the same tobacco, sold it under assumed names with the result of the following averages: Appomattox $7 60 and Pamplin $6 50. Mr. B did the same thing and got the same result. In view of the fact that all the buyers have practically the same orders, it is doubted if any market in the state can pay more than Appomattox for the same grade of tobaccos. The buyers here say they have orders for all good grades and will always pay the top notch

Mrs. Martha Jennings

On March 19th, 1921, the death angel visited the home of Mr Simon P. Hughes, of Prince Edward Co., and claimed his mother in-law, Mrs Martha Jennings, the widow of the late Richard G Jennings. Mrs. Jennings had been in failing health for several years and her death was not a great surprise to those who knew her real condition. She was about 88 years of age and since the death of her husband had made her home with her children of which she raised nine to man and womanhood Eight of them survive her as follows: Messrs E L and J. A Jennings of Prince Edward; G. N. Jennings, of Appomattox; Mrs Simon P Hughes Prince Edward; Mrs. Wiley Kidd, of Roanoke; Mrs Thomas Hilton Tennessee; Mrs. Henry Hughes, Richmond; Mrs. Lloyd Lewie, Appomattox.

The pall-bearrers were grandsons: Messrs. Lacy, Clinton, Marton, Ernest, Richard, Hago and George Jennings. Flower bearers were: Mesdames S. B Hart, F. B. Gills, W. R. Cheadle, Otis H. Gilliam, P. W. Coleman and Miss Kate Johnson.

Winter Haven, Florida

Dear Mr. Editor:

I wish you would give me the opportunity to say a belated word to the community thro your columns. I wish to express as I cannot in any other way, my true appreciation and thanks for the unfailing sympathy and forbearance shown me during my long illness and especially the many kindnesses during the last few weeks of my stay among you, not only by the congregation I delighted to serve, but the people of Appomattox.

Tho I am enjoying and building up on the gentle climate and dustless atmophere of Florida, I shall never cease to miss those I esteem the best and truest people on earth or to ask God's blessing on them. Only don't any of you come messing 'round Florida again and never give me a sign.

Let the Wild Cats Alone!

Every now and then somebody calls to ask for our opinion of some get-rich-quick scheme in which he or she has been asked to invest. For several years past the country has been flooded with bonanzas (?), and many people, to their sorrow, have put money into them.

Occasionally some good but misguided man who has already bought a "wild cat" stock, calls on us seeking information. We like always to be encouraging, but on such occasions we feel very much as we imagine the doctor does who has to tell his patient the worst.

It is for the reason that there are very bad as well as very good securities that we advise prospective investors in any issue to investigate it thoroughly.
